

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1880

B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

There is a bill before Congress that provides for the non-observance of the law that requires dress parade in the regular army on Sunday.

Guth puts the number of reading men in the United States Senate down to a small number. They are Garfield, Hoar, Edmunds, Conkling, and perhaps Hill, of Colorado.

Last week it was ascertained that all parts of the county that Samuel J. Tilden is engaged to be married to a Louisville, Union county, Pa., lady named Rank. It was a scandal.

The body of Miss Dolly Hartman, aged eighteen, who died in Allegheny City, was cremated in the LeMoine furnace at Washington, Pa., last Saturday.

The Republican State Convention that assembled at Harrisburg last week was fair in its work; everybody was allowed full scope to caucus, and shout for whomsoever he pleased, to his heart's content.

FASHIONABLE people at Washington believe that Mrs. Hayes should cramp her hair, and that the President should wear glasses, and attend church. But Mrs. Hayes and the President prize the even tenor of their way.

CONNECTICUT is now the largest tobacco States. Within five years Pennsylvania has increased its annual production from 40,000 to 75,000 cases. In New England, as a whole, there is a decrease.

A STORM has been started in Washington, to the effect that England, France and Germany have formed an alliance, with the purpose of carrying to completion the project of a ship canal across the Isthmus of Panama, and that there is a probability of a war between the United States and these governments because of this alliance.

The Democracy are making a terrible ado over the support that Senator Cameron gave to the Grant movement, in the late Republican State Convention, just as if Cameron had no right to express a preference for any one for the office of President. It is a query in the minds of a good many people as to what the Democracy would say if Cameron had been with the Blaine boom.

The Philadelphia Press publishes the following concerning the late Republican Convention:

"But by the next morning many delegates were captured by means which we are unwilling to mention more specifically. They were left at liberty to renounce their dishonorable and dishonest."

Why don't the Press come forward like a nice little man and tell specifically what it knows? Certainly a first class journal is not afraid to give facts, figures and dates, if it has them.

ADOLPH E. BARRÉ, of Philadelphia, died on the morning of the 5th inst. He was 71 years old. He was a man of business foresight, a man of keen discernment, an earnest supporter of the Northern cause against Slavery.

REPUBLICANS in Chester county held a meeting last Friday, to protest against the action of the late Republican State Convention for instructing Grant, and for passing a resolution that the delegates of the State shall be cast solid, as one vote, at the Chicago convention, which is to meet in June.

The second clause of the resolution instructing the delegates to vote as a unit, was adopted by a rising vote. After which the Committee on Resolutions organized and reported and placed Mr. Olmstead in the Chair. Mr. Olmstead delivered no speech, but immediately proceeded to work.

The nomination of Auditor General was the first business. John A. Lemon and J. A. Passmore were put in nomination, when a recess was taken until 7:30 p. m. At the hour designated the Convention reassembled, when on a vote, Lemon had 158 and Passmore had 93 votes. The nomination was made unanimous.

The Committee of five to name delegates to the Chicago Convention, and to name Presidential Electors, made their report, which was adopted.

The Delegates-at-Large, are Matthew S. Quay, Lynn Bartholomew, James McInnes and Christopher L. Magee.

The delegate from this, the 18th Congressional district, are J. G. Isenberg, Huntington county; Dr. B. F. Wagonseller, Snyder county. The alternates are W. C. Fomeroy, Juniata county; John W. Matton, Huntington county; and the Elector from this Congressional district is G. W. B. Westling, Franklin county.

After the announcement of the names of the delegates to the National Convention, and Electors the Convention received the nomination of Henry Green, L. L. D., of Easton, as Associate Judge of the Supreme Court, unanimously.

RESOLUTIONS. The Committee on Resolutions recommended the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That joining, as we do, over the steady growth of the national prosperity, which began in 1875 with the change of the balance of trade in our favor, and over the successful resumption and maintenance of specie payments, we may reasonably claim the financial soundness and prosperity of the country as the natural result of the financial policy we, as a party, have sustained.

2. The resumption of specie payments having been accomplished, at the time appointed by law, and the finances of the country being in a thoroughly healthy condition, we regard it as unwise to engage in any new attempts at financial legislation. The country is prosperous under our financial system as it is, and we know of no good reason why that system should be now disturbed.

3. The persistent efforts of the Free Traders to destroy our Tariff piece meal, by legislation to repeal the duties on special articles, admonish us of the necessity of adhering more strongly than ever to the tariff policy of the past twenty years, which has built up our grand system of manufactures, fostered the revenues of the Government and promoted our national prosperity. The business of the country will not bear the tinkering of the tariff; and any revision of that tariff is to be made at all, it should be done through a commission of capable men; after a patient and thorough hearing of all parties to the interests involved.

4. We object most decidedly to all attempts to enact a new tariff through the agency of commercial treaties. A treaty, framed, negotiated, discussed and ratified in secret, is not a proper method of regulating the revenues of the Government.

5. In view of recent events in Congress and in the Southern States, and lately in the State of Maine, we deem this a fitting opportunity to reaffirm our adherence to the following principles, viz:

I. The union of the States—with equal rights, inalienable by any constitutional amendment.

II. Protection to the person, liberty and property of the citizen of the United States, in each and every part of our common country, wherever he may choose to move, demanding of him only obedience to the laws and proper respect for the rights of others.

III. Strict integrity in fulfilling all our obligations, State and national.

IV. The perfect security of free thought, free speech and a free press, and of equal rights and privileges to all men, everywhere, irrespective of nationality, color or religion.

Republican State Convention.

When the Republican State Convention last week nominated Judge Green for the Supreme Bench, and Senator Lemon for Auditor General, it put into the field a ticket that will carry the field with a sweeping majority in November. The platform is strong one in its expression on the great questions before the country. The convention was agitated over an expression of preference for a candidate for nomination for the Presidency to take place at Chicago next June. Of the number of candidates that will appear before the Chicago convention for nomination, all were last night excepting Grant and Blaine. Around the two candidates mentioned the convention surged and shouted with a vim that indicates success for the candidate that will appear at Chicago. It is an American right to harness good nature for your preference or choice, until the final decision has been made, and then all fall into line and shout to gether for the chosen candidate.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONVENTION. The Republican State Convention convened at Harrisburg, in the Opera House, at noon, last Wednesday. During the six or eight weeks past a large percentage of the politicians of the State began an active campaign for Senator Blaine; they endeavored to secure as many delegates in Blaine's favor for the Presidency as they could, and when they marshaled their delegates in caucuses at Harrisburg on the evening of the day before the meeting of the Convention, they numbered 32. They had among them prominent politicians, Senator Lawrence, Strong, Abright, Bingham and Koontz, and many others, who, while not so prominent were none the less able.

The Grant element had among its prominent men present, Senator Cameron, Quay, Errett, Herr, Olmstead, Cessna, and many others. The Representative delegate from this county was Newton Davis, and the Senatorial delegate representing the district of which Juniata is a part, was W. H. Swanzy.

On the assembling of the Convention, at the time and place above stated, Chairman Holden, of the State Central Committee, called the assembly to order. Ratsel Errett and Senator Lawrence were both put in nomination for temporary Chairman. 250 votes were cast. Errett represented the Grant people and Lawrence the Blaine element. The former received 158 votes, the latter 92 votes. Mr. Lawrence escorted Mr. Errett to the Chair, upon the taking of which Mr. Errett delivered a short speech.

Resolutions, providing for Committee on Permanent Organization, Committee on contested seats, and Committee on Resolutions were passed, and the Convention adjourned to dinner. On the reassembling of the Convention, AFTER DINNER, a resolution was offered that a Committee of nine members be appointed to report, subject to the approval of the Convention, a list of delegates and alternates to the National Convention, and a list of Presidential Electors, after consulting with the delegates from the different Congressional districts.

An amendment was offered, that a committee of one from each Congressional district be selected by the delegates from each Congressional district, whose duty it will be to report to the Convention the names of four delegates-at-large to the National Convention, and two Electors at large, that it shall be the duty of the committee to report also a list of district delegates to the National Convention, who are to be chosen by the delegates from the respective districts, including in their report the names of those persons who have already been chosen as delegates from their respective districts by the action of the people thereof.

The amendment was lost by a vote of 100 yeas to 150 nays, and the original resolution was agreed to.

The resolution, that the delegates elected to the Republican National Convention from this State are hereby instructed to support General U. S. Grant to the Presidential nomination, and to vote as a unit on that and all questions that may come before the convention, stirred up a considerable amount of discussion.

A motion was made and seconded, to substitute the name of James G. Blaine for that of U. S. Grant, the vote on the motion standing 95 yeas to 154 nays. The Convention then took a vote on that clause of the resolution, instructing the delegates for Grant. Vote for Grant, 134; nays, 113.

The second clause of the resolution instructing the delegates to vote as a unit, was adopted by a rising vote. After which the Committee on Resolutions organized and reported and placed Mr. Olmstead in the Chair. Mr. Olmstead delivered no speech, but immediately proceeded to work.

The nomination of Auditor General was the first business. John A. Lemon and J. A. Passmore were put in nomination, when a recess was taken until 7:30 p. m. At the hour designated the Convention reassembled, when on a vote, Lemon had 158 and Passmore had 93 votes. The nomination was made unanimous.

IV. The perfect security of free thought, free speech and a free press, and of equal rights and privileges to all men, everywhere, irrespective of nationality, color or religion.

V. A free and a pure ballot, than which no other is so essential to the integrity of our government as that which is secured by a free and a pure ballot, than which no other is so essential to the integrity of our government as that which is secured by a free and a pure ballot.

VI. Honesty in elections. The people believe the virtue and the patriotism to govern themselves, our government must depend for its stability upon honest elections. Until a man is considered infamous who casts an illegal vote, our government will not be safe, and whoever deprives a citizen of his right to vote, or of the legal effect of his vote, is a traitor to our government.

VII. An honest count of all votes legally cast, and no count of votes in excess of that cast, free from all attempts to defraud the people of their choice through technicalities or by an arbitrary rejection of their votes.

8. We extend to the Republicans of Maine our congratulations over the peaceful and successful resistance to an effort to defraud the people of that State of the right to choose their own representatives, and to the attempt to steal the government of that State. Our republican form of government will be a signal failure when any political party can succeed in defying the public will as shown by the people at the ballot box.

Resolved, That the chairman of the Republican State Committee is hereby instructed and required to carefully examine whether any person to be placed on the electoral ticket be legally disqualified, from any cause, from serving as an elector; and, in case any such legal disability be found, the State Committee shall substitute another name from the same Congressional district.

After appointing the State Committee adjourned sine die.

State Treasurer's Report.

THE FINANCES OF THE STATE DURING 1879.—THE TREASURER'S REPORT. "MAKES SOME VERY GOOD SUGGESTIONS."

"State Treasurer Noyes has published his report of the condition of the finances of the State during the year 1879, from which we learn that the total receipts to November 30, 1879, were $8,448,895.65, and the total payments $6,929,063.21. In concluding his report the State Treasurer says:

"It is greatly to be regretted that the receipts for the past year have been but little in excess of the estimates made in my report to the Legislature. No material expenditures have been somewhat greater. The revenue bill, passed at the last session, has up to this date failed to increase the receipts of the Treasury. No material reduction in the deficits in the Treasury that has for several years existed has come from this source. During this year, but the situation remains unaltered, and the deficit in the Treasury is still $1,500,000."

"A deficit in round numbers of a better outlook in the future. The market is largely appreciated the value of corporation stocks and gross receipts of transportation companies, and stimulated activity in the mining of coal by corporations. This, it is fair to presume, will materially increase the amount of the receipts for the past year. This will be the saving of some $200,000 by reason of no session of the Legislature the coming winter. These will, it is believed, place the department in a much more favorable condition than it has been in for some time in the past. It is hoped that the future Legislature will see the importance of keeping the appropriations within the amount of the receipts, and to the result, and thus avoid the disgrace of having this old Commonwealth in a condition of being unable to pay all legal demands upon it."

"All of which is respectfully submitted. AMOS C. NOTES, State Treasurer."

THE CANDIDATES. "Hon. Henry Green, LL. D., of Easton, the candidate of the Republican party for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, is a native of Warren county, New Jersey, though his father was a native of Easton, and his grandfather one of the early settlers. He was born August 23, 1828, and was educated at Lafayette College, graduating in 1846. He entered the law office of Judge Washington McCartney, and in the fall of 1849 he was admitted to practice at the Bar of Northampton county. He devoted all his time to the pursuit of his profession, though he held a seat in the Constitutional Convention of 1872-73, as a Republican delegate by the State to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. Samuel E. Dimmick. He was for several years the law partner of the late Andrew Reeder, who became famous as Governor of Kansas in the antebellum days. His high attainments as a lawyer are manifested by the fact that for several years he was employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company, the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, the North Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and other large and influential corporations.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS. NOTICE is hereby given that all persons trespassing on the lands of the undersigned, either by cutting timber, building fires, or in any way whatever, will be dealt with as the law directs.

STATE ITEMS. A sensation was caused at Bradford, Sunday forenoon a week, by the sudden revelation that J. H. Jones had clandestinely married, a few weeks ago, Miss Eva Jacobs, a girl only thirteen years old. The matter at first was not made known to her, and she is now in a precarious condition. The girl admitted the truth of the alliance, and Jones having been sent for declared that he had married her, and commanded the girl to accompany him immediately. When the family attempted to interrupt him he drew his revolver and threatened to kill any one who interfered. Legal proceedings will forthwith be instituted against him by the enraged family.
